Flint Sugar

RE: Enthusiastic and Hardworking storyboard artist

To the Management staff at Flint Sugar:

Congratulations on your recent project < False Memory>. I particularly love the story, the action scenes and the color pallet. It was so inspiring to see your work once again. Having followed Flint Sugar's success for multiple years, I would welcome the privilege of contributing to future growth and success as the new Storyboard Artist. I am confident that my academic history and aptitude for creative problem-solving will be an invaluable addition to your existing team.

Having recently graduated from LCC BA Animation, I am keen to continue learning in a professional environment. I thrive in environments where innovation and experimentation are encouraged and I love to explore new concepts. I'm good at bringing about new inspiration and thought-provoking ideas. My diverse background has served me well in cultivating concept design, storyboard design and editing strengths. These abilities, coupled with a passion for the field, are well-aligned with the requirements for the Storyboard Artist role. I perform best in a work culture that promotes high-energy teamwork balanced with positivity and collaboration.

I am dependable and creative with a strong work ethic and an artistic eye, but also bring a fun-loving and enthusiastic attitude. I possess experience in collaboration skills, personal effectiveness and creative problem solving and I am confident that my creative talents will prove to be an invaluable addition to your organization. I look forward to speaking with you about the opportunity to create and grow as your new Storyboard Artist.

I'm excited to share my portfolio with you in the hopes that you have a position available for a storyboard artist. About to graduate from BA animation at LCC, I have been working hard to develop my skills and have a passion for storyboard design.
